

Dear Member of the Class of 2010,

In June you will be reaching an important milestone in your life – high school graduation. You have worked conscientiously and diligently during the past four years and you and your family should be very proud of this accomplishment.

The Board of Directors of the Connecticut Junior Soccer Association would like you to know that they have established a scholarship fund for graduating seniors. Applicants must have participated with a CJSA affiliated club, have a C+ or better average and anticipate attending college as a freshman in September of 2010. The fund will award four $1000.00 scholarships to candidates meeting established criteria.

All applications must be complete and sent in its entirety in one package to the CJSA Office. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
